

CHOOSING THE RIGHT PET.

1. What is your situation like at home and your environment?

Does it allow you to have a pet? if yes, what kind of pet? Do you live in a pet friendly neighborhood? Is your house big, small, medium, large? Do you have a garden? Can you walk in your neighbourhood?

2. What type of lifestyle do you have?

Are you super busy? Are you active do you have time for a pet? if you come home at 8 in the evening do you still want to play and exercise your dog? Who will be responsible? What if you are going out of town?

3. What is your energy level like?

Are you an active person or not so much? If not, would a high energy level dog be a good match for you?

4. It can be expensive owning a pet, if you do it the right way!

Vet bills are high, nutritious/quality food is NOT cheap. Are you ready for all the

5. Level of Experience.

If you have NO experience then don't get a pet that has a lot of special needs and that requires a lot of training.

6. Do you realize that a pet can live up to 15 years?

Can you give a life long commitment?

TAKE TIME, AND MAKE THE RIGHT CHOICE!

You, your family and your pet have to live with the decision you made for many years to come.

KNOWLEDGE IS POWER.

Make sure you have lots of information about the type of animal or breed that you are adopting and put that knowledge into action.

MAKE EFFORT GET RESULTS.

If you invest time in learning about dog behavior & learn about basic training you will be able to understand your dog and teach them basic commands. This is all part of responsible pet ownership!
